Mr. & Mrs. Burt Northcutt
818 Radford Drive
Abilene, Texas

Dear Folks:

I have just noticed in the "Highland Helper" that Burt is the new Chairman of the Deacons. I know this will entail a lot of time and extra effort, but both of you have been giving that kind of attention to your commitment to Christ for a long time. As Sue and I anticipate moving to Abilene, it is refreshing and encouraging to know that people like you are willing to assume more and more responsibility for the on-going of the Highland work. We pray for you and your new duties.

We are still concerned about a house and would like your help and assistance if you know of anything available. We have looked at Boyd Field's house on Canyon Court. We will have to have a four bedroom with a fair size dining room and would like to get something as nice as possible within the 24 to 26 thousand range. We prefer a new house but would consider taking over an older house that fitted our needs and was in good condition. Your help in this regard will be appreciated if you happen to know of anything.

Best wishes for all your work. We send you our love and prayers.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
